

Community Group Discussion Guide

Sunday, October 27, 2024

Scripture: Luke 24:1-12

THIS WEEK'S FOCUS

Even where disbelief is prominent, the empty tomb displays the reality of Jesus' resurrection.

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION (Use along with Reading: Ante Faciem Dei)

1. After the Sabbath, why did the women come to the tomb on Sunday (verse 1)? What were they expecting and hoping to accomplish?
2. Who do the women encounter at the empty tomb? What has been the work of angels throughout Luke's gospel (Luke 1:11, 26; 2:9; 22:43)?
3. What is the angels' message to the women at the tomb?
4. Along with regularly reading God's Word, how can we remind ourselves of Jesus' atoning death and glorious resurrection (verses 6-8)? Why do we need frequent reminders?
5. Why is the gospel central to the Christian faith?
6. Does the good news of the resurrection move you to tell others who need to hear? How can we grow in our boldness in sharing the gospel with others?
7. With whom have you shared the gospel that responded in disbelief? What are some ways you can continue to minister to him/her?